AID to SPEECH THERAPY

was formed during the winter of 1952-53 as the Women's Committee of Emerson College. In the fall of 1953, the Samuel D. Robbins Speech and Hearing Clinic opened its doors at the College. The Clinic and the Committee formed a natural pair, and it was not long until the Committee became Aid to Speech Therapy.

Since the founding of the Robbins Clinic, Aid to Speech Therapy has been helping to support this organization. Since its inception, the Clinic has provided diagnosis and treatment of speech and hearing disorders to over 3,500 children and young adults. And since 1953, Aid to Speech Therapy has been active in raising funds for the Clinic, so that even more people may be helped.

One out of every ten children of school age in Massachusetts suffers from some form of speech or hearing impairment, and many of these are seen at the Robbins Clinic.

Through Aid to Speech Therapy, the Robbins Clinic has been provided with such invaluable equipment as the Audiometric Testing Room at the Clinic, as well as treatment and observation rooms fitted with one-way glass, and portable hearing aids for audiological evaluation. In addition, members of Aid to Speech Therapy work as volunteers at the Clinic.

Membership in Aid to Speech Therapy now stands at several hundred interested men and women. There are well over one hundred life members of the organization.

Until last year, the organization's major fund-raising effort had been an annual luncheon. Now, on the tenth anniversary of the Robbins Clinic, Aid to Speech Therapy is sponsoring a benefit performance of an Emerson musical comedy. All proceeds from the Friday evening performance of South Pacific will go to assist the invaluable work of the Robbins Clinic.

The job will be a long, difficult one. But with every child who is helped to take his place in a speaking, hearing society, the task of the Robbins Clinic and Aid to Speech Therapy will be one step closer to completion.

As Thomas Mann said, "The word . . . preserves contact. It is silence which isolates."

"Enough, if something from our hands have power
To live, and act, and serve the future hour . . ."

— William Wordsworth
